WELCOME

As you will see, this is the 200th edition of Group 4 News. It's unbelievable that we have been doing this since October 1999. The first edition was a simple sheet of A4 folded into 4 pages, rather like the pew sheets of today. It wouldn't have been possible without the help of previous editors such as Sue Smith, Moira Saunders, Ann Berchem and others. . We must also remember the valiant work done by those who find the advertisers, collect their money and these days prepare the basic templates. Plus Kevin, who prepares the web page.

It can be a frustrating occupation, trying to fit all your news and articles into the available space, but it continues to be fun!

As always, 'Happy Reading '

The Editorial Team

Eileen and Pam

Thanks to all contributors and apologies to any whose work has not been shown in this issue.

We promise to include your articles wherever and whenever possible. Please do keep them coming.

Many thanks to the distributors, we couldn't do without you!!!

NOTES FROM THE RECTORY

God Spot.

Here we are a quarter of the way through the year already (doesn't time fly when you are enjoying yourself).

Round about this time of year with the dark cold mornings I think the majority of us need something to get us started. To make the effort to peep from under the bedclothes and take that first step into the new day. I suppose in the majority of homes, with their central heating, it is not too bad, however in our house we don't have the heating on in the bedroom. My wife and I prefer a cold bedroom or so she tells me. This probably stems from when we were kids in the North East and central heating consisted of a fire in the living room and that was it, so bedrooms were cold. I love the start of a new day, even one where you are dragged from your dreams by an alarm clock at 7am. There is just something glorious about that opportunity for a fresh start, a new beginning, what has passed has happened and there's nothing you can do about it. You have the new day where you can make a difference. That is what happened to me when Jesus came back into my life – a new beginning. He gave me the opportunity to start again. I grabbed that chance and found such joy and beauty in things that I had just taken for granted – like waking up to a new morning. Now that is one of my simple pleasures.

God Bless,

Ken Waters

PS. My wife has pointed out that music must be one of my pleasures as another bill has come in for music downloads on iTunes!

200th Edition of Group 4 News.

The cover of this edition tells us that G4N has achieved its 200th edition, with Mark's original Church drawings.

Congratulations to all those who not only established G4 but have kept it going for nearly 20 years. Believe it or not that was before many of us had iPhones iPads or were competent with computers or electronic printing. I believe the first printer we used was a shared stencil and (rather messy) tubed ink job. All the previous editors and helpers are to be thanked and congratulated for keeping G4 in production for so long; in its current form for four incumbencies and four interregna. From the time that the rural ministry became multi benefited the parish magazine had a particular role to play in keeping in touch.

Bishop Stephen Sykes, in his response to the Faith in the Countryside Report said that "The role of the Church is to create community"! G4 has contributed to this sense of community not only by being a portable noticeboard but also by encouraging us to think group. As our benefices have increased in size so we can become creatively a group within a larger group.

Some years ago Beachamwell Horticultural Society extended membership to its annual show to those who lived within the G4 catchment area. A further example is the co-operation between Fincham Group News and G4N is that they share the same editors.

Finance is always an issue when founding a parish magazine. We are most grateful to those who have had the confidence to buy advertising space, and to the finance officers who seek the ads and keep the books.. This not only funds the production but it also contributes to a community spirit by offering locally services by local people when many services have been no longer available in our villages. Need a plumber, electrician, garden help or even a vet? Look in G4!!

One group of people who must not be overlooked are those who month in month out deliver your G4N and your FGN, in the case of G4N, without charge, so that it may go into every house within its catchment area. Thank you! This month's 200th edition brings news of Lent and an early Easter as we move from winter to spring. Finally to Eileen and Pam, our long serving editors, congratulations and thank you! Robin Blackall

COUNTRYSIDE NOTES SWANS

On February 5th one tabloid's headlines read 'QUEEN'S SWANS KILLED BY BIRD FLU' Some strains of bird flu are highly contagious; it's always a concern when it's identified in wild birds. The disease is carried across countries by migratory birds.

We are all familiar with our resident orange billed Mute swan found on rivers and lakes. The male is known as a 'cob', the female a 'pen' and the young as cygnets. Mute swans normally live as solitary pairs and aggressively defend their territories so it is unusual to find them nesting as a colony but this happens at Abbotsbury Swannery on the Dorset coast. It is the only managed colony of nesting Mute swans in the world with an estimated 150 pairs. They are free flying and the Swannery is believed to have been set up by Benedictine monks in the eleventh century with records dating back to 1393. There are also estimated to be about 120 pairs of black swans breeding in the wild. Native to Australia, these were first brought to Britain as ornamentals in 1791 and are most likely to be seen at Dawlish in Devon. Two other species migrate to Britain for the winter. Anyone who has been to Welney Wildfowl Centre and witnessed the swan feeds will probably have seen them. Whooper swans, which have black and yellow bills, arrive in autumn from Iceland and their cousins the Bewicks, very similar in appearance but smaller, come all the way from arctic Russia.

Reference to the swans being the property of the Queen is not quite accurate. They don't actually belong to her but she has the right to claim ownership of any found in her realm. A thousand years ago the taking of swans was the prerogative of the monarch. Classed as livestock, flocks of swans are still known as herds. The practice of swan 'Upping' dates back to the twelfth century when roasted swan featured on the menu of every medieval feast. These were actually cygnets which is a French term describing a swan young enough to be eaten, one that still has its brown juvenile plumage. The custom of 'Upping' on the river Thames continues to this day, this year beginning on July 16th at Sunbury and finishing at Abingdon on July 20th. The official Swan Markers wear Her Majesty's scarlet uniform and work from traditional Thames rowing skiffs. Accompanying them are 'Uppers' from the Vintners and Dyers Livery companies who also own swans on the Thames. The first documented evidence of this dates from 1509. The cygnets are caught, data is collected, their general health assessed and a careful check made for injuries which most likely occur through being attacked by dogs or snagged on fishing lines. Finally a ring is attached to one leg providing them with an identity number. These annual censuses have shown that swan numbers on the Thames are in decline and it is of great concern that this outbreak of bird flu may decimate the population. Jill Mason

BOUGHTON FEN – THEN AND NOW

Many of you will be familiar with Boughton Fen – a Site of Special Scientific Interest and County Wildlife site, a popular spot for bird watching, and a pleasant place for a family stroll around the Wildlife Walk. Of course it hasn't always been like this.

Boughton Fen is located at the eastern end of Oxborough Road (old Fen Road) and covers around 40 acres to the south of the 'T' junction and straddles either side of the road that leads to Eastmoor to the north and Oxborough to the south. These parcels of land were assigned Poors' Lands under the Act of 1801. An extract of which reads:

Poors' Lands, Boughton, Norfolk

Three Commissioners were appointed under the Act passed in the year 1801 to enclose the common and waste lands of Boughton, and to divide and allot the same, estimated to be in extent 776 acres, 1 rood, 4 perches. On the 26th August, 1803, the Commissioners finished, and ordered their Deed of Award and plans to be placed for reference in the Chest of the Church of the Parish of Boughton. "And we, the said Commissioners, do hereby assign, set out, and allot, as by the said Act directed, unto the Lord or Lords of the Manor Boughton, Overhall and Netherhall, for the time being, the Rector, the Churchwardens, and Overseers of the Poor of the said Parish of Boughton for the time being; and to the Proprietors within the aforesaid Parish of estates of the yearly value of £25; and to their respective successors for ever, in trust, as hereinafter mentioned, all that piece or parcel of land, containing by survey, 44 acres, 2 roods, 22 perches, part of the said common." Here the Boundaries are described in the Deed of the Award, and are those of the parcel of land now known as "Boughton Fen." Which said piece or parcel of land is the same piece mentioned and described in the Act, and directed to be allotted by us, in Trust, for the purpose of providing and supplying to the occupiers of each of the Commonable Messuages or Tenements now standing in the said Parish of Boughton, for the time being, and to the occupiers of each of the three following Cottages in Boughton, one belonging to Loom Brook in the occupation of Edward Whittrick and two belonging to , or in the occupation of, George Lewis and William Fincham, a quantity not exceeding nor not less than 4000 turves or flags, of the usual dimensions, for fixing in every year, and for the tenants and occupiers of all the commonable mesuages now standing in the Parish of Boughton, to use and enjoy right of common pasture over the said allotment, with such kind and number of stock as is hereinafter mentioned. For each of the commonable messuages, that is to say, 2 cows or 3 head of young stock under 3 years old, or 1 cow with 2 calves under 1 year old, or 2 geldings or 2 mares, with or without foals not exceeding 8 months old. And we, the said Commissioner, direct that the said allotment may be stocked and fed from 12th May until 11th October in every year and that from 14th February until 12th May in every year, the allotment shall not be stocked or fed with any kind of beasts or cattle whatsoever.

"And we, the said Commissioners, certify that the said new fences enclosing the parcel of land in trust, directed by us to be made, with ditches 4feet 6inches wide at the top and of the depth of feet, perpendicular, with a sufficient number of gates, with oak posts and proper gate irons therein, have been made, and that white thorn layers have been set in the banks of the fences, and good thorns or other wood have been set on the summits of such banks. And we, the said Commissioners, have computed the costs and charges under the said act to be £1947 18s. 6d., to be paid by the several persons to whom allotments have been made, save and except the several persons particularly exempted on account of allotments made to them in trust as aforesaid from the payment of any of the said charges of the Act."

It would seem that, contrary to the views of some, that the fen was also much wetter some of the time, than in recent years:

After 22 years of service with the Home Hospice Alan Collison has retired. He delighted with the leaving do". The care and preparation and the generosity of everyone was overwhelming. The kind thoughts and words shown in cards, gifts and "the book" will stay with me for a very long time. Thanks for everything and I shall miss you all. I am looking forward to spending more time with family and perusing my many hobbies. Thanks again to one and all". Swaffham Museum

Swaffham Museum reopened in February after a busy six weeks. Behind the scenes work included two new exhibitions, a new activity for adults and children 'Do you know how to use a 1930's typewriter?' , additional dressing-up options and a new museum trail.

The first new exhibition 'Philo's diary' has extracts from a diary written in 1850 by James Philo (1810-1877) who worked as a boot and shoemaker from his home at 8 London Street – approximately where Blaine's shop is today. He revisited the diary in 1873 and he describes the changes in Swaffham over the 19th Century. Besides his own personal sentiments, there are references to Education, Emigration, Local Government, Unions and Entertainment in Swaffham.

Our second exhibition is a display of paintings from our store. This is mostly paintings from the Carter family – Samuel John (father to Howard Carter), and Harry Carter who is well respected for his village signs. There are some copies of Harry's original designs. There are also some works from the graphic designer, Max Mueller. Max was a graphic artist and printer in Leipzig before becoming an unwilling conscript in the German army during WW11. He surrendered to the American army and eventually came to live as a prisoner of war in the camp at Cockley Cley. After his release he remained within the locality working for a funeral director before setting up his own printing press.

30th Anniversary of Swaffham Museum

This year is the 30th Anniversary of the Opening of Swaffham Museum. It was opened on March 14 by Dick Joice, well known and respected presenter of regional television and of the 'Bygones' programme. The Museum started with two rooms in the Town Hall, and there were over 1000 artefacts which had been collected during the previous 10 years. Mrs Merle Boddy was a prime mover in the establishment of the Museum. We will celebrate our 30 years in September on one of the Heritage Open Days.

Open Mon – Sat 10am to 4pm. More information on our website (www.swaffhammuseum.co.uk)

MAGPIE CENTRE NEWS ROUNDUP

At last – spring is on the way. Even if the mud and sleet are still with us, little by little the evenings are drawing out.

Time to take up a new interest? The Magpie Centre, home of West Norfolk Riding for the Disabled Association, is in need of a Trustee Treasurer. This voluntary post might suit a retired book keeper or accountant, who feels able to give a few hours a week to a very worthwhile cause.

Although a good knowledge of accounts is required, experience with horses, or of people with disabilities, is not essential. For an informal chat, call WNRDA Chairwoman Rosie O'Grady on 01366 500104.

As we went to press, tickets, at £10 each, for the Quiz and Hog Roast supper (with vegetarian option), scheduled for 7.00 for 7.30 pm 3 March at Stowbridge Village Hall, PE34 3PE were selling well, but to make a last-minute booking, call 01553 828935.

And now a quick reminder to those booking speakers for local groups: the Magpie Centre can supply speakers on the topic of riding as therapy for people with disabilities, the development of the Riding for the Disabled movement, plus the history and work of the Magpie Centre. We do not charge a fee, but a donation to Magpie Centre funds is always welcomed. To book a speaker, call 01553 810202.

Could you help a young person with a disability to think about their Future?

The CSV Futures Project supports young people with learning disabilities to explore their options as they think about leaving education.

Volunteer Mentors provide one to one support to a young person to help them develop a personal profile of their skills and interests, their likes and dislikes and their future goals. The Mentor can then support the young person to start working towards these; this can include accessing work experience and training opportunities plus the chance to try out volunteering and new social activities.

CSV needs volunteers who can offer a couple of hours of their time each week to mentor the young people as they make choices about their futures, raising aspirations by exploring together the young person's skills, interests and abilities.

We are looking for people ages 16+ - Mentors can come from all walks of life and no experience is needed but patience, the ability to listen and a sense of humour are all useful skills. Mentors receive full training and support and out of pocket expenses are paid.

If you would like to find out more about becoming a Volunteer Mentor for the CSV Futures Project please contact Vicki Howling, the project co-ordinator for an informal chat. Telephone 01366 386972 or 07926 044845 or email vhowling@csv.org.uk

CSV (Community Service Volunteers) is the UK's leading volunteering charity. Social justice is at the heart of what we do; empowering people to have a positive stake in society and tackle barriers to community participation through creating volunteering and learning opportunities.

BARTON BENDISH NEWS

Thought for the Day Breakfast (January 13th)

In a welcome addition to Messy Church, the Barton community assembled for breakfast in the Village Hall to share fellowship and a thoughtful start to Saturday. It is to be hoped that this highly successful event will become a regular occurrence, especially since it seems that breaking bread together counts as a church service – a very well attended one too! A number of people, who travelled from outside the village, observed that Barton events are always good fun and very popular. Let's hope this message is heard loud and clear by the National Lottery Grants People.

Burns Supper

Once again a strong Scottish aura pervaded Barton Bendish Village Hall on the night of January 27th. There was a full house to share in the programme assembled in honour of the Bard of Ayrshire, the Ploughman poet Robbie Burns and to feast on the traditional supper of haggis, neeps and tatties followed by cheese and biscuits and afterwards Joan's special shortbread.

Kilt clad Andrew Stephen proved to be an authoritative MC and the evening followed the usual format of entertainment for such a celebration. It began with Rev Ken Waters saying the Selkirk Grace followed by the Haggis being piped in with the aid of a CD player. Mhari then addressed the haggis in her native tongue which, for us mere Sassanachs, Linda kindly interpreted. When we had finished the meal Alan Reid, now a native of Kent, recalled many aspects of the Bard's life in his speech The Immortal Memory rounded off with audience participation in a rendition of 'My Love is Like a Red, Red Rose'.

Chris Parsons filled us in with some of the lesser known facts about Burns before ending with a 'Toast to the Lassies'. Next the choir regaled us with three traditional songs before Joc Keshet-Price responded to the Laddies in a way that would make all the women of today who are campaigning for equality with men proud. In fact I think she even managed to tip the scales in their favour. Ian Berchem once again impressed us all by reciting 'Tam o' Shanter' from memory leaving us wondering how he does it when many of us have difficulty even remembering the words of a limerick!!!!

More songs followed from the choir before our MC expressed the appreciation of us all by thanking everyone who had worked so hard to make the evening such a success. The loudest round of applause was deservedly reserved for Joan, who spent the entire evening very much out of sight in the kitchen either washing or drying up. If it wasn't for all those people, who helped in one way or another, Barton would never be able to hold such events.

The evening was brought to a close in time honoured tradition with a hearty rendition of Auld Lang Syne.

Thanks to everyone on behalf of all the guests for another great evening.

Jill

Events at Barton Bendish are always a pleasure and yet I'm still always surprised by the popularity of whatever activity is put on for our pleasure. And pleasure was the dominating feeling, as laughter, song and the sense of a community at play made three and a half hours pass in the twinkling of an eye. Barton is only a little village and yet it is full of talent. We can also count on the enthusiastic contributions of many who live in neighbouring villages.

For me, the most interesting comments concerned how Burns would be seen in today's climate of legislating for human weaknesses and abuses. Joc's 'Reply to the Laddies', which was hilarious, made the point that it is safer to be a woman making jokes, following centuries of men having it all their own way. Freedom of thought and speech is alive in Barton!

The choir impressed as they always do and the redoubtable Ian recited Tam O'Shanter from memory! Indeed he spoke so well that those of us less well acquainted with Scottish dialect were able to follow the events within this venerable poem.

Linda Webster provided a handy translation of Mhari Blanchfield's 'Address to the Haggis' as Scottish culture, poetry, passion and debauchery and heritage were celebrated in style. Long may this glorious tradition continue!

Snowdrop Walk (February 11th)

Another very popular event in the village combined the delights of a snowdrop walk with a walk in the footsteps of Mary Caney. Expertly led by David Mason, the intrepid walkers braved an icy wind, of the kind known well to East Anglians. It sets off from the Urals and there is nothing in between. Readers of Jill Mason's novel enjoyed seeing a number of locations which Mary Caney would have been familiar with. It was odd to think, whilst standing in St Mary's Church, that the same (seventeenth century) box pews would have been there for her baptism and for one of her marriages. The Barracks, and a number of cottages, are no more, but the Blacksmith's Shop, The Old Rectory, Avenue House and a number of other places, known to Mary Caney, remain.

David has done more than anyone to chronicle the changing times of Barton and as, finally, we stood by Mary's grave, I thought of the young Michael Horn jumping out of his bedroom window in the old Post Office, eager to join the boys for a night out. He too loved Barton and was steeped in its history. It is so important that it should be preserved for all time.

The other element of the walk was to view a staggering abundance of snowdrops. We are grateful to Luca, Anthony and to Neil and Sally (at Score House) for access to those views. Anthony provided us with a very informed view of snowdrops and some fascinating insights into the development of the Hall gardens.

Thirty-five people, plus a two-year-old and sundry vocal dogs, came on the walk which they very much enjoyed, despite the conditions. We were pleased to get back to the warmth of the Village Hall, complete with tea and superb cake. The village has changed a great deal even in the last fifty years – and will continue to do so. Thanks to the Masons who have vividly documented Barton's past, and those responsible for looking after our landscape, and who do it so well, we can guarantee that it will always be a pleasure to live here.

'A Complete Guide to Clematis' March 28th

Peter Skeggs-Gooch from Thorncroft Clematis, who are ten times gold medallists at the RHS Chelsea Flower Show, has agreed to come and talk to us about growing and caring for clematis. It has been arranged for Wednesday March 28th at 7.30pm in the Village Hall and will offer a golden opportunity to find out all you want to know about growing clematis.

Admission is £4 which includes refreshments and booking is essential.

Easter Coffee Morning Saturday 31st March 10am – 12noon

We are holding our annual Easter Coffee Morning on Saturday March 31st from 10am – 12noon in the Village Hall with the emphasis being on the whole family. There will be an Easter Egg tombola as well as the chance to win a delicious cake by entering the competition to guess how many eggs are decorating it. There will also be book, cake and produce stalls as well the usual raffle and one or two things for the kids to do.

Put your Easter Bonnet on display if you have the time to create one.

This is an event held annually to raise funds towards the costs involved with the day to day running of our Village Hall. Money is needed to pay for insurances, water rates, electricity etc. As you all know they don't come cheap!!

Needless to say donations of cakes, Easter eggs, raffle prizes etc would be very much appreciated.

Village Projects

We continue to receive suggestions of how we might commemorate a hundred years since the end of WW1, including suggestions about how we might decorate the village accordingly; maybe using signs, projections and red flowers, including poppies. Messy Church has offered help with creating poppies from wool or felt, for example. There is a wonderful display, of banners, hand sown hearts and poppies, in Ely Cathedral which is already inspiring some of us. Of course, we would also appreciate any suggestions you might have about the development of the Village Hall. Andrew

Anglia Water

Many of us have been under siege from giant tankers which have done a good job of wrecking the environment of Hatherley Gardens. I am told that the crisis is nearly over because the faulty well at Beechamwell is being relined. The tanker firm have apparently lost their contract with Anglia Water, whose lack of communication with villagers has been deplorable. Andrew

Barton Bendish Ordinary Parish Council Meeting held on 10th January 2018

Cllr Chapman was in the Chair. Six parishioners were in attendance.

The Parish Council made a decision on the Precept for 2018/19 and agreed to set the figure at £4705, which included a Council Tax Support grant of £60. This would represent another year of no increase for parishioners.

The Parish Council was very pleased to hear of the planned renovations and improvements to the Village Hall and agreed to provide a letter of support for the project to raise funds to carry out this work.

The project committee advised on proposed events to commemorate the centenary of the end of WW1 in November 2018, which includes production of a book giving stories of the fallen and stories from residents with relatives who took part in the war. There is also a plan to plant poppies throughout the parish.

An application has been made to the Norfolk County Council Parish Partnership Scheme to cover 50% of the cost of a trod (informal footpath) for the bend on Boughton Long Road. A decision should be received in March 2018.

The owners of the chicken shed on Fincham Road had already been contacted about the dead tree, which is close to the highway and partially come down during storms over the Christmas period. We will be chasing up action from them to remove this tree.

The next meeting will take place on Wednesday 14th March, 2018. This will be the Annual Parish Meeting followed by an Ordinary Parish Council Meeting starting at 7.30pm in the Village Hall. Miss Sarah Thorpe, Parish Clerk

Good news! Beachamwell Parish Council has been able to acquire and fit a Public Access Defibrillator with thanks from the Norfolk Community Foundation. The Parish Council were requested from members of the community if one could be made available, especially with all the various activities now happening within the village for all age groups.

We are able to do this and now you are all able to update or expand your First Aid knowledge with the training on how and when to use a Defibrillator. If you would like to come along to a session to be arranged at the Village Hall please do let us know. There are limited spaces available to residents on first come first served basis, but we do not want stop someone from outside the Parish taking part, this project is to increase awareness of the challenge and having the confidence to know what you can do in an emergency where ever you may be. Please get in touch with any of the Parish Councillors or Eileen to take part.

BEACHAMWELL, SHINGHAM & DRYMERE VILLAGE NEWS

Rev. Ken Waters spoke of the most beautiful and mysterious words in the New Testament, the verse which opens the Gospel according to St. John: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. We were reminded that John is the only one of the Gospel writers not to give an account of the birth of Christ with its rather romantic descriptions of a manger and swaddling clothes and shepherds watching their flocks by night. John is much more concerned with exploring the mystical and philosophical nature of Christ's birth. In a lecture in Westminster Abbey to mark the five hundredth anniversary of the King James Bible, the former Archbishop of Canterbury, Rowan Williams said that what he loved most about the King James version was that the reader was made aware through the sometimes convoluted language of the translators that the Gospel writers were struggling to express truths that lie beyond human language. We sense this struggle more with St. John than with the other three Gospel writers. Language is so often used literally nowadays to convey facts, or to distort facts, that many people have lost the feeling for the poetry of the Bible. Anyone who attended this service of Communion in this beautiful and ancient church would have gone away with a renewed sense of the mystery which human language can only begin to express and know that, in the words of Hamlet, the rest is silence.

Notes from the Vestry: As the pancakes have been long gone and the period of Lent stretches the length of this month, you might be missing the things you've given up! If it is chocolate – the wait for that first Easter egg might seem a long one!

You may wish to join us for one of the two monthly services – though the church will be without any flowers during this period, there is still that magical atmosphere of the ancient building that invites reflective thoughts. On 4th of March there will be a 'Holy Communion Service' with Ken Waters and on the 18th March we'll hold a 'Service of the Word' with Ray Burman; both services start at 11 am.

This year's Good Friday (30th March) will be marked by a children's 'Crafts and Easter Egg Hunt' event. Please bring your youngsters along to the Village Hall from 2pm. We shall be getting involved in some crafts, enjoying some refreshments, making a visit to our church and follow the trail of the elusive Easter Bunny.

We are very grateful to all those who provide their support for this event, especially those who will be opening their gardens (and doing some back-breaking work beforehand), volunteers who will be preparing lunches and teas, numerous bakers of cakes and all those who will be giving their time and helping on the day. The service will include traditional readings; readings collected about the men who went to war from Beachamwell, Shingham and Drymere; World War 1 poetry; music of the day and hopefully a Member of the Armed Forces to play The Last Post.

Wednesday Walkers

As long as you are well wrapped up, a walk along snow dusted footpaths and bridleways can be very enjoyable. At least this is what we found on our Feb walk as we covered about 4 miles in a bracing northerly wind.

BEACHAMWELL, SHINGHAM & DRYMERE VILLAGE NEWS

Our path took us to Shingham via Stambles Plantation, where we saw for ourselves the recent storm damage. One of the oldest oak trees has now completely fallen and we are grateful to John Rix for clearing the footpath so quickly

We then crossed to the Warren, skirted the back of Larchwood and turned right along the Cockley Cley road before heading back along footpaths to Shingham and home.

Our March walk will take us along forest drives. Meet at the village hall 10am Wednesday 7 March.

WI

On a very cold night in February, Beachamwell WI enjoyed some much-needed sunshine, thanks to a wonderful slideshow by local photographer, David Mason, featuring his travels from Arizona to Alaska. The landscapes were truly “awesome” as the Americans say, but there were also some exquisite photos of flowers and plants, and pictures from many close up encounters with birds and mammals, including bears. David was a most interesting and knowledgeable narrator and all the members very much enjoyed this trip “out West”.

The count is in for our choice of resolution for 2018, debated at our January meeting and there was a clear majority in favour of a WI campaign for better mental health provision. Our votes will go forward to help the national organisation make its choice.

At the meeting on March 1st the theme is an arty one, with an illustrated talk by Genista Davidson on “Art Deco: Architecture to Earrings”. As always, visitors or prospective new members are very welcome to come along.

Beachamwell Local History Group

After our quiet year in 2017, we now have several exciting events scheduled for 2018. The first is on Thursday, 22nd March. This will be a dramatized account of the eviction of local villages to make way for the military zone in the 1940s. "Miss Lucinda Reeves", one of the villagers affected, will be here in person in the village hall to tell the story of the "battle" to prevent the eviction and its consequences. A fascinating story, told in an interesting new way. Tickets will be £3 on the door.

The planned talk by Mary Ann Prior on "Constance Villiers-Stuart and India", postponed from February will now take place on Thursday, May 24th.

Later in the year, on Sunday 23rd September, there will be special open day on "Beachamwell's Churches". This will comprise exhibitions in St Mary's Church and the village hall, plus guided walks to the remains of St John's and All Saints' and also to St Botolph's at Shingham, which we hope to be opened up for the visitors. The open day will focus on the History of the Churches (and the Methodist Chapel) and illuminate their role in village life, past and present. To help with our preparations, the Local History Group would really like to hear from individuals who have memories, artefacts or pictures of the life of the churches and parishioners. Perhaps you were married here and have photos? If so, the BLHG would love to hear from you! Please get in touch too, if you are interested in getting involved in this project.

Women and Words

The Swaffham based writing group, Icen Rural Writers, is celebrating International Women's Day by hosting an evening's readings of poetry and prose. Joining them will be award winning local poet Heidi Williamson, who will read works from her collections 'Electric Shadow' and 'The Print Museum'. Organiser Leah Spencer said: "This will be a great opportunity for the writers in our group to share their work with a wider audience." There will also be an open mic slot for other local writers; if you would like to read please contact 01366 328536.

Women and Words takes place on Thursday 8 March at 7.30pm in the Pedlar Suite of the George Hotel Swaffham. Tickets are £5.00 from Ceres Bookshop Swaffham or by telephoning 01366 328536 or on the door.

Icen Rural Writers would like to thank Swaffham Town Council for supporting this event. Leah Spencer

BOUGHTON VILLAGE NEWS

All Saints' Church First, a polite request: if you are attending an event at the church, whatever it is, please be considerate of the people who live in Church Lane, and park 'politely'. It's not a very wide road and the bungalows have tight turns to get into their drives. If you park right up to them, it makes it difficult. The same applies on other roads. Particularly in the dark, it's hard to see if anyone is parked right up to the edge of the drive and an accident can happen so easily.

Open Gardens: the weather is beginning to look more hopeful, and many of us will be looking to go out into the garden to tidy up and plan changes. Even if it's to reduce the amount of work as we get older! Open Gardens Day this year will be on Sunday 10th June and it would be lovely to have several emails volunteering to open gardens, and not need to chase them up. If you haven't opened in the past, it's good fun meeting people. The money raised goes towards keeping the church open, even more important as it's also the village centre. If you don't want to open your garden, but would like to join in and help, please contact me (500429) , Angela or Sandy.

Easter services: We have our own traditions, so Holy Week will start with the group service at Barton Bendish on Palm Sunday. If you can, meet in the lovely little church of St Mary at 10am to begin the service, before going to St Andrew's, either on foot or by car, to listen to a dramatized reading of the Passion and join with others in Holy Communion. On Easter Saturday, the day before Easter Sunday, Boughton will again have the Easter celebrations. This involves the lighting of the fire and candles, readings, bells, choir and the sharing of the first communion of Easter. Please come along and join us in this celebration. It's solemn, but joyful, and everyone enjoys it.

Greetings by Oscar Pop-Up Cafe

The homemade soup served at our January pop-up was much appreciated as the temperature had dropped somewhat. Hoping that it will not be as cold in March for our next pop-up on the 21st from 11:30 am, again serving a light lunch of homemade soup by popular request! All greetings cards at the special price of £1.00 each.

Look forward to seeing you.

Greetings by Oscar ~ 'In a Box' Some of you have expressed a wish to look at our greetings cards, as work/family commitments do not allow for a visit to our bi-monthly pop-up cafe at All Saints' Church. With this in mind we are happy to put together a selection of cards and deliver them to your home to enable you to look through them at your leisure with absolutely no commitment to buy. All cards are £1.00 each, some of which are high street names and we have numerous offers throughout the year. If you are interested in browsing an 'Oscar Box' in the comfort of your own home then please contact Angela on 501335. The Boughton Village Caravan

WEREHAM VILLAGE NEWS

Wereham Parish CouncilNext Meeting DateTuesday 13 March 2018 (Ordinary Parish Council Meeting)

Agenda items must be received before the end of the month prior to each meeting, items received after this time will not be possible to discuss. Please send to the Parish Clerk at werehampc@gmail.com. The Agendas for meetings are always published on the Wereham Village Notice Board three clear days before the meeting, on the Wereham Parish Council Facebook Page and on the website www.werehamparishcouncil.co.uk. You will also find minutes of all meetings here too. The Parish Council are interested in hearing from anyone who has pond plants they could donate to eventually set in the village pond, depending on a species check. Please contact the clerk by email werehampc@gmail.com

Please could all residents report any dog fouling and if necessary take photographic evidence of anyone not collecting their dog mess, and report to the Borough Council's team. There was an unfortunate event early December on the Wereham Village Pond Green near the path of large dog mess left there ignorantly and a child stepped into it covering both shoes and covering clothes. We will all agree that this is just not acceptable and it has been going on for far too long all over the village. For a resident of Wereham to not collect their dogs mess after and to do it in a central place in the village where children go to school is without due care and is just not acceptable. Wereham do not want this blighting the village any longer and the Clerk will be stopping any dog walker in the village to check they have the necessary dog bags for the foreseeable future. The Parish Council has supplied and pays for three dog bins and for them to be emptied across the village but unless certain dog owners take their responsibility they are in vain. They are located at the end of Lamas Lane (Flegg Green end); along Cavenham Road towards the public footpath field end; and on the playing field near the village hall entrance. https://www.west-norfolk.gov.uk/info/20094/animals_and_pests/157/dog_issues All are welcome to attend meetings in 2018, if there are topics or ideas that you wish to share or be discussed with the Parish Council at any time during 2018, please email me on werehampc@gmail.com. Helen Richardson Wereham Parish Clerk and Finance Responsible Person Email werehampc@gmail.com or Phone/Text: 0779 500 6811

February Update from the Wereham Village Hall Committee

Well, 2018 has got off to a steady start. The new build is coming on a pace despite the miserable winter weather doing its best to make life difficult. The first car boot was held at the end of January and the pop up café is back up and running on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of the month – do come along and join us for a chat and delicious, freshly prepared homemade lunches and cakes. Our Easter Bingo is scheduled for 28th March, doors open 6.30, eyes down 7.30. We would be very grateful for any donations of prizes/raffle prizes - contact Angela on 10366 500115, Diane on 10366 500798 or Doreen on 01366 500218. In addition, we are planning a "Beetle drive" in the not too distant future – lots of family fun – watch this space for more details.

Update from the New Build Project Team

The exterior shell is now almost complete and the scaffolding has all gone, whilst internally electrical wiring, mechanical services and plastering are all well advanced. As soon as the plaster and floor screeds are sufficiently dry the windows will be fitted and the external timber cladding installed.

Overall, the project remains on course for completion by mid-April. We have recently received notification of successful grant applications from the Borough Council and Love Norfolk, which is fantastic news. However, we still need to continue fundraising and have applied for a number of other grants over recent weeks. Don't forget that it is still not too late to donate to the buy-a-brick campaign. We are still more than £3000 short of the £10,000 target we pledged to the lottery as our community fundraising so any further donations are still desperately needed. Just follow the link from our website to our MyDonate page. For more regular updates and photos, follow us on our Facebook page.

SPEEDING IN THE VILLAGE. Some villagers may recall that almost 2 years' ago a group of near neighbours did form an official Neighbourhood Speed Watch Team under the guidance of Norfolk Police Road Safety Division. This initiative was mildly successful but was unfortunately fairly short lived due to many factors not least the lack of support throughout the village with some residents actually objecting to our efforts. True the scheme does depend on a firm commitment from at least 6 determined people who would be prepared to give up a minimum of one hour a week & undergo an initial training session to familiarise themselves with all legal requirements & use of the approved radar gun & equipment all supplied by the Police. If anybody is interested I would be happy to have a preliminary chat. In the meantime a few Flegg Green residents are now displaying 30mph signs on their dustbins. They seem to have some effect so the more the merrier! Tony Mears Phone 01366 500909.

Wereham Craft Group.

This year we have decided to make things for charity giving as well as raising funds for our village hall. Some of the girls are knitting squares to be made into blankets which we will then give to The Salvation Army for their night shelters and needy families. We are also still making items for our own craft stall to raise money for our village hall. We gave a number of knitted items to the Salvation Army just before Christmas and they were extremely grateful, we will also be doing the shoe box Christmas boxes again this year so if anyone is interested in doing one please get in touch and we will give you all the info. Not long now until we move into our fabulous new village hall when we hope to see more crafters amongst you or anyone who would like to have a go at a new craft. If there is anyone out there who would like to come and give us a talk / demo of their particular craft then I would love to hear from you. Next month I have been asked by some of the girls to do a demo on making Tote bags, so I will be doing that. Please contact me on 01366 501330 or e-mail rosemary.pease@btinternet.com. 200 years ago.....Emily Brontë was born on 30 July 1818 in the village of Thornton Market Street on the outskirts of Bradford, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, in Northern England, to Maria Branwell and an Irish father, Patrick Brontë. She was the younger sister of Charlotte Brontë and the fifth of six children. In 1820, shortly after the birth of Emily's younger sister Anne, the family moved eight miles away to Haworth, where Patrick was employed as perpetual curate; here the children developed their literary talents.[4] After the death of their mother on 15 September 1821 from cancer, when Emily was three years old,[5] the older sisters Maria, Elizabeth and Charlotte were sent to the Clergy Daughters' School at Cowan Bridge, where they encountered abuse and privations later described by Charlotte in Jane Eyre. At the age of six on 25 November 1824, Emily joined her sisters at school for a brief period.[6] When a typhoid epidemic swept the school, Maria and Elizabeth caught it. Maria, who may actually have had tuberculosis, was sent home, where she died. Emily was subsequently removed from the school, in June 1825, along with Charlotte and Elizabeth. Elizabeth died soon after their return home.[7]

The three remaining sisters and their brother Patrick Branwell were thereafter educated at home by their father and aunt Elizabeth Branwell, their mother's sister. A shy girl, Emily was very close to her siblings and was known as a great animal lover, being especially noted for befriending the stray dogs she found wandering around the countryside. The authors were printed as being Ellis and Acton Bell; Emily's real name did not appear until 1850, when it was printed on the title page of an edited commercial edition.[56]

Wuthering Heights's violence and passion led the Victorian public and many early reviewers to think that it had been written by a man.[57] Even though the novel received mixed reviews when it first came out, and was often condemned for its portrayal of amoral passion, the book subsequently became an English literary classic.[60] Emily Brontë never knew the extent of fame she achieved with her only novel, as she died a year after its publication, aged 30.

Emily's health was probably weakened by the harsh local climate and by unsanitary conditions at home,[62] the source of water being contaminated by runoff from the church's graveyard.[c] Branwell died suddenly, on Sunday, September 24, 1848. At his funeral service, a week later, Emily caught a severe cold which quickly developed into inflammation of the lungs and led to tuberculosis.[63][d] Though her condition worsened steadily, she rejected medical help and all offered remedies, saying that she would have "no poisoning doctor" near her.[65] On the morning of 19 December 1848, Charlotte was fearful for her sister. At noon, Emily was worse; she could only whisper in gasps. With her last audible words she said to Charlotte, "If you will send for a doctor, I will see him now"[67] but it was too late.

She was interred in the Church of St Michael and All Angels family capsule in Haworth.

Many practices now use other veterinary surgeries for their out of hours work. This means that you will have to travel to an unfamiliar practice which is likely to be much further away. Despite being only a two vet. practice we continue to do all of our own on call cover. The phones are diverted directly to the vet on call as we know that clients appreciate a familiar voice at the end of the phone, 24 hours a day, who knows their pets and, if treatment is necessary, then they prefer to travel to their own practice to be seen. This is part of our Professional and Personal service that our existing clients are accustomed to and we warmly welcome new clients who wish to register with us.
