It was reported at this Meeting that the Parish was without the services of a gravedigger & that in the case of death it might be a difficult matter to find any person to dig graves. The Clerk pointed out that the Meeting had no power to appoint a permanent grave digger & that the appointment rested with the Rector of the Parish. ~~but who is it was stated to be the~~ ~~to be the~~ After considerable discussion on the matter it was suggested that Mr George Pettitt be approached with a view to his undertaking the duties until such time as a permanent grave digger was appointed

The bad state of the Fen Road was brought to the notice of the Meeting when the Clerk undertook to see the Surveyor to the R.D.C. ask if something could not be done to repair the Road
